I do know what I receive via notice from Amar, but I never “see” what Curt or Norm or Mgmt staff have received in the past.

It just seemed a little too open 😊

Looking forward to my $100 payout.... Ha habut I am trying to keep an open mind.
Thanks for all your work on that ~

Concur,

But I thought that would come from your IO. Part of the issue is the state of flux right now in your IO, but hopefully we will put that to bed in today or tomorrow.

Best Regards,
Reeder

Thanks for approving these for our staff.

Can I make a request? Is there a way to leave off what the other BCs, AD or Mgmt analyst receive ?? I feel it might be too personal and based on performance so therefore should not be shared amongst us.....

My two cents.
Thank you!
C

Good morning,

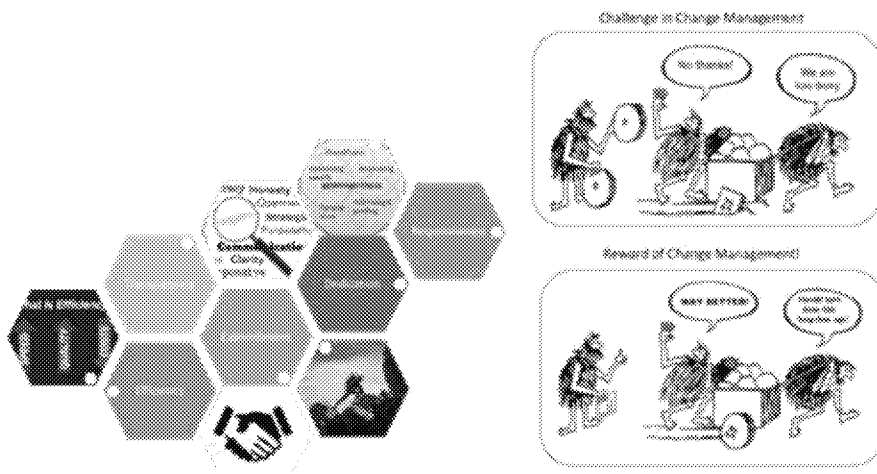

Here is the feedback from the IO for time off awards. I will enter the ones for y'all. I also recommended to Reeder that Bailey should also receive a time off award. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thanks!

Maya,

Attached is a spreadsheet that takes into account your recommendations with a few additions. Also, for your award we will initiate that in the IO. Thanks for all of your help and patience.
